MAJOR CONTENTS -- 1963

JANUARY, 1963 — NUMBER ONE

Page

RING OUT WILD BELLS ..... George T. Armitage 2
A true Christmas vignette, involving Ed Cooney, colorful Montana editor, and a green young cub reporter.

THE MAN WHO REFUSED TO RETIRE ..... Lyn Willis 8
J. A. Rutherford came West in his middle years, and lived to launch a new career in the Northwest's first drive-in root beer stands.

FROM PLUMES TO BUCKSKIN ..... Fairfax Downey 18
America's high-hatted dragoons evolved into the hard-bitten cavalry of our western frontier.

TERRITORIAL BENCH IN MONTANA: 1864-1889 ..... Clark C. Spence 25
Vast frontier areas and niggardly appropriations made the Territory's administration of justice a confusion of carpet bag inefficiency.

C. M. RUSSELL'S BRONZE MASTERPIECES OF THE OLD FRONTIER 33
A special portfolio of the late W. Alton Jones' celebrated collection of C. M. R.'s sculptured works, on display in its first public showing, at the Historical Society of Montana.

THE NEZ PERCE RETREAT ..... Rowena L. and Gordon D. Alcorn 66
Aged Sam Tilden tells childhood memories of his tribe's flight toward Canada and their surrender to General Miles in the cold of October, 1877.

APRIL, 1963 — NUMBER TWO

Page

IROQUOIS INDIANS IN THE FAR WEST ..... John C. Ewers 2
A noted ethnohistorian offers initial probings into influences of the very early western migrations of these Eastern woodland Indians.

LT. JOHN J. PERSHING AT THE GRAND CANYON ..... Donald Smythe 11
A brilliant military career almost ended prematurely in 1889 with "Black Jack's" harrowing attempt to view Arizona's awesome spectacle.

FATHER PIERRE JEAN DeSMET ..... Albert Antrei 24
A backward glance, from his last heroic peace efforts on behalf of the Sioux in 1868, at the great Jesuit's missionary career in the West.

BATTLE OF WOLF MOUNTAIN ..... Don Rickey, Jr. 44
Fur-clad troops of Nelson Miles engaged Sioux and Cheyenne remnants under Crazy Horse in a final convulsive resistance in the bitter cold of January, 1877.

JULY, 1963 — NUMBER THREE

Page

THE JOURNAL OF ADA A. VOGDES, 1868-71 ..... edited by Donald K. Adams 2
A sensitive young Army wife recorded her fears, feelings of desolation, wounded sensibilities, and growing fascination with life at Wyoming's frontier military posts, Laramie and Fetterman.

A HORSE DRIVE TO MONTANA TERRITORY, 1881 ..... Elizabeth Greenfield 18
A unique and exciting experience of Henry H. Nelson, who became Montana's largest individual sheep owner and a leading conservationist, as recalled and researched by his daughter.

WILD & WOOLLY POLITICS, 1878 ..... Fred Whiteside, edited by Dorothy Johnson 34
The outspoken man who became involved in Montana politics of another day, recorded a strange election in huge Custer County wherein the methods of polling and tallying were "funny peculiar."

LAST RITES FOR LONESOME CHARLEY REYNOLDS ..... John S. Gray 40
How a one-time meeting between Custer's famous scout and a future Yellowstone Park superintendent led to a lifelong friendship and a reverent and distant reinterment.

MILTON SUBLETTE: Thunderbolt of the Rockies ..... Doyce B. Nunis, Jr. 52
One of the famed Sublettes of the fur trade strode into the Far West to challenge the best in the business in the Southwest and Rockies only to meet death at 36 at old Fort William.

BILL FREEMAN, IMPATIENT YOUNG ARTIST ..... Gladys T. Niehuis 64
Never quite satisfied with his own delineations of the west, this transplanted westerner works in the saddle and stays close to the scenes and wildlife he brings to life with growing success.

OCTOBER, 1963 — NUMBER FOUR

HONYOCKERS OF HARLEM ..... by Mabel Lux 2
First-hand remembrances, with interpretive overtones, of the tragic, heroic homestead era, and the once-reviled "scissorbills" who remained to prosper on Eastern Montana's prairies.

NARCISSA WHITMAN ..... by Erwin N. Thompson 15
A sympathetic analysis of the martyred woman whose roles as wife and mother transcended that of missionary among the proud, unrelenting Cayuse in the Place of the Rye Grass.

PLENTY COUPS: CROW CHIEF ..... by Norman B. Wiltsey 28
The mystic beginnings and practical leadership of a great Indian chief who assured a better future for his tribe, caught up in the inevitability of Manifest Destiny.

MYSTERY MAN OF THE JOHNSON COUNTY WAR ..... by Helena Huntington Smith 40
George Dunning, hired by Wyoming's cattlemen, remains an enigma after his "confession," ruthlessly suppressed during a still-remembered agony, appears again.

E. S. PAXSON, MONTANA ARTIST ..... by Franz R. Stenzel, M.D. 50
The most complete summation yet to appear on the life and works of the man who was an authentic pioneer and observer as well as recorder with pen and brush.

MYSTERIOUS PARSONS BRIDGE ..... by William R. Bandy 77
Modern-day taxes and road-building lead to investigation of the exact location of an historic span, built to transport gold-seekers to Last Chance Gulch.

EXPLANATION OF STYLE

Entries in the Index are arranged alphabetically under name, subject, and author.

Titles of articles and books, and names of steamboats appear in italics.

Source references include, in this order: volume number (in roman numerals), number of the issue within the volume, and the page number or numbers. The small letter "n" indicates a footnote reference, the letters "ff" indicate further mention beyond the page given. The use of a hyphen between page numbers (1-10) indicates the subject is treated fully in those pages inclusively.
